From The Inside Out,

Putting on a New Face

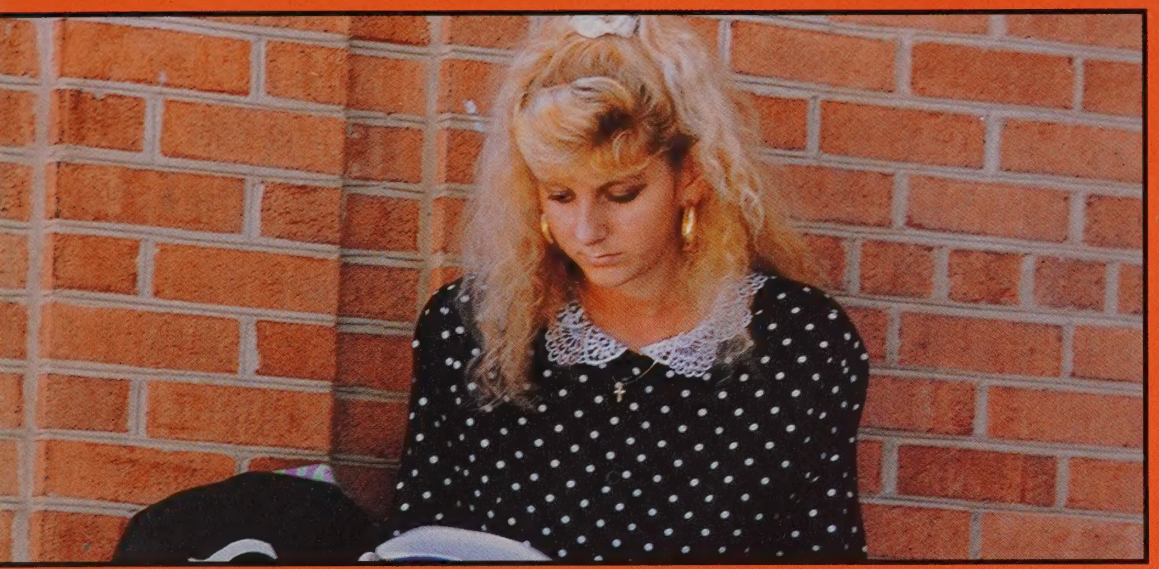
A new beginning marks the twenty-ninth year of Floyd E. Kellam High School. Twenty-nine years ago when the doors of Kellam High School opened, the students must have been enthusiastic about attending a new school. Now over a quarter of a century later, students seem to be just as excited about the new look of our school, "From the Inside Out."

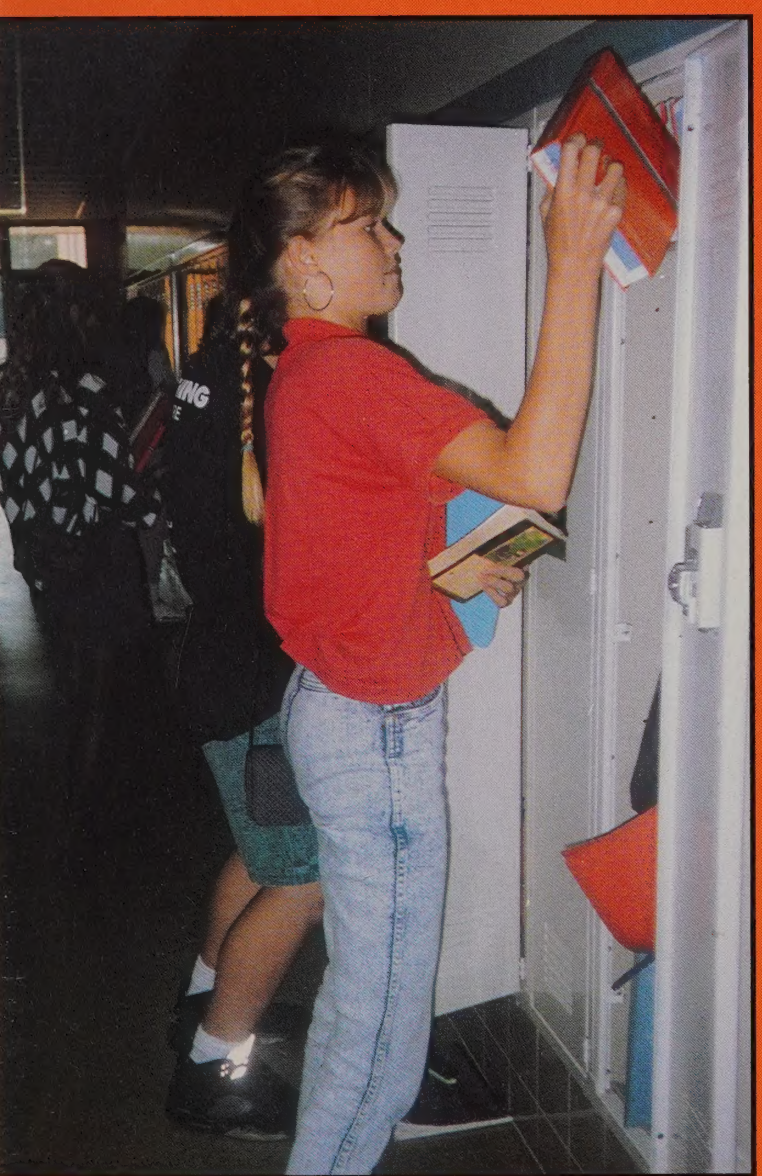
"It's improved." "It looks real good." "I like it." These were just some of the numerous verbal reactions from the enthusiastic Kellam Knights as they entered the newly renovated school building. The new look created a sense of pride for the students.

Moving into the school is our new principal, Mr. A. Williams, from Brandon Jr. High School. Joining him with this task are our three Vice Principals, two of which are new. They are Mr. Dailey, who came to us from Plaza Jr. High, Mr. P. Williams, from Cox High School, and last but most certainly not least, our own Ms. Porter who has been with us throughout the past few years.

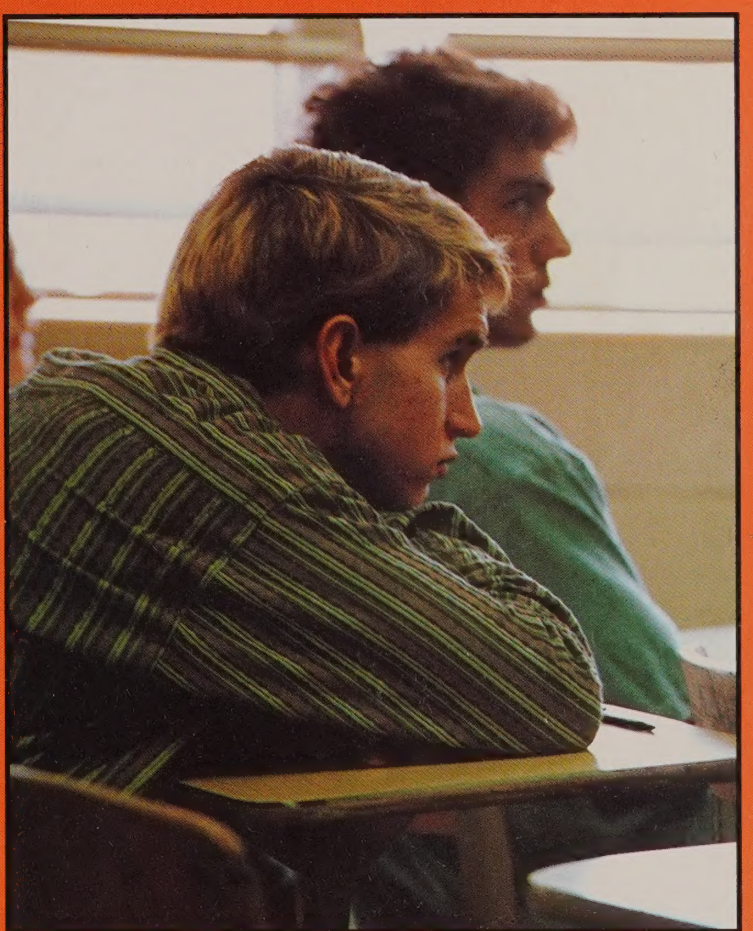
This year, with our new administrators, a renovated school building, and a fresh sense of pride — promises to bring one of the best school years Kellam has ever had.



In her spare time, Holly Reed studies hard for an upcoming test.



The Kellam football team bursts through the spirit banner to challenge Kempsville at the Homecoming game.



Two history students, Rob Glass and Tom Gilliat, listen attentively as Mr. Lipford lectures.

Sara Grimstead quickly grabs her English book out of the lockers and dashes off to class.

Amante-
Hey, its been fun in english and so so in Accounting - Hope you have a killer Summer and Good Luck next Year,

Student Life

All students want to succeed. Two ways to do this are: making good grades and being involved in activities. No doubt these are common for high school students, but at Kellam we represent unquiness. Students show concern with the community around them and try to help as much as possible. Besides participation in extra curricular activities and after school jobs, it is not unusual to see students volunteering their time. With these traits, Kellam's changing From the Inside Out!

Elton Williams struts out onto the football field.

Is Christine Reyes a good bagger or what?

This group of seniors definetly have spirit.

The power of these three Knights is apparent as they drag their team to victory.

Looking on with total amazement, Ms. Dunkin and Ms. Murrel, along with fellow students, enjoy the competion.

Young Life, F.C.A.

Field Day of Champions

Is this a beautiful day for tire tug of war, known as British Bulldog, volleyball, and massive relays or what? Members of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Young Life spent October twentieth together at Mt. Trashmore competing against each other and other schools for fun.

One of the most interesting games to the students was British Bulldog. The object of the game was the same as tug-of-war but instead of a rope they used a tire. Some of the spectators said "It was so cool that I wanted to get out there and play."

Students were also interested in playing volleyball. Each school competed against each other. There were a few spikes and dives that kept the game lively and the students happy.

The students, teachers and guidance counselors enjoyed the free drinks and hot dogs after competing in and watching the vigorous games. During this time they socialized with each other and with people from other schools.

All in all, the students made some new friends and had a great time playing the games. This truly was a day for champions to show their dedication and pride in their school.

> "Kellams spirit and pride truely excelled over all other schools."
> Angi Beard, Junior

Along with the rest of the team, Ryan Smith and Ariel Florendo anticipate the start of the volleyball game.

Neptune Festival

Creativity in the Mist

As the heavens opened up, they let out the much needed rain and the Neptune Festival of 1989 was washed out. This was not the case of the 1990 Neptune Festival. This year the cool breeze and blazing sun came through.

To many, when the Neptune Festival is mentioned various topics come to mind: sand, sun, student art show, food stands, and last but not least, King Neptune. The party lasted all weekend and the entertainment was nonstop.

One of the high points of the Neptune Festival was the Sand Castle Classic. This year was no different from the rest. Kellam out did themselves in this competition. Participation from the FHA and student body of Kellam, displayed Kellam's enjoyment and enthusiasm with the entire event. The Sand Castle Classic was Saturday morning and spectators were in awe. Kellam High School's FHA participated along with several other schools' organizations of every level.

Soon after the Sand Castle Classic was over, the pride of Kellam High, the Marching Knights, paraded down Atlantic Avenue, leaving a streak of black and gold in the hearts of all watching. Who would have known that this was the beginning of successful ratings for the Marching Knights' competitions.

For the grand finale of the weekend, fireworks emerged into the darkness. The colors erupted in the sky and lit up the beach, while the waves crashed upon the shore. There was no doubt that this was a memorable day.

Taking time out, Cindy Lambardo directs the young baton twirler to her group.

Striving to reach perfection, Rae Schaffer adds the finishing touches to FHA's Sand Castle Classic entry.

Through Thick or Thin, We're Still

Friends Forever

Though the exact definition of a friend varies from person to person, there are certain characteristics we consider valuable in our companions. Honesty, loyality, and trustworthiness are the essential for a successful friendship.

Friends of all types, from close friends to simple acquaintances can be found throughout Kellam. Friends can be seen strolling through the halls in groups of three, or hanging out in posses in the courtyard. Friends are a very important part of our schools' atmosphere.

Friends are priceless. They provide someone to confide in and someone to give comfort during times of need. A good buddy is also someone you're able to have fun with. Private jokes and special memories provide an occasional chuckle for many. Friends of all types hold a special place in our hearts. They help us to grow and understand ourselves better by accepting our positive character traits, as well as our annoying quirks.

Some of us are even fortunate enough to find those special people with which we remain close to throughout our lives. One thing is for sure, a true friend provides all of the rewards life can offer.

> "A friend is someone to talk to, to hang out with and just be yourself with."

Got Spirit?

Yes We Do!

Spirit week is a time when students are able to express themselves individually. Spirit week provides a creative outlet for students, allowing them to flaunt their stuff by dressing up according to the daily theme. Spirit week consists of five days each with various themes ranging from Reggae Day to School Colors Day.

Dreadlocks, bell-bottoms, pumkin costumes, UVA sweat shirts and school colors, were all seen during Spirit week of the 1990-91 school year. A new kind of spirit accompanied the new look of Kellam; the students showed their pride by participating on each of the five days.

Spirit week started on Monday, Reggae Day and rasta colors of green, red, black and yellow were seen all over the school. Tuesday was Hippy Day which took us back in time. Students wore bell-bottoms, tie dyed shirts and peace symbols. Wednesday, Halloween Day, both teachers and students dressed up in a large aray of costumes. Thursday was College Sweatshirt Day. This was the day students could show their support for the college of their choice. Friday was designated as School Colors Day. Colors of black, gold, and white painted the student body, faculty, football field and other surrounding areas.

Spirit week came to a close with the grand finale of HOMECOMING! The Homcoming football game, half-time float competition and, last but certainly not least, homecoming court. Hopes were hyped throughout spirit week and everyone showed their enjoyment of the entire event.

Radiant faces accompanied by warm enthusiasm filled the stands upon the chilled November evening. Kellam's spirited cheerleaders got the night started with one of their well-known cheers, as the mighty Knights took their place on the field. Face to face with the Kempsville Chiefs the action began.

> "This was my first homecoming at Kellam. The student involvement and participation will be remembered for a long time."
> Mr. A. Williams
> Principal

Halftime brought the highlights of the night; the awesome floats draped with black and gold balloons, streamers circled the field as the energetic students "Did the Knight Thing." Whether it was taking a hayride, cheering from a firetruck or jamming to the beat with the B.C.C., everyone in the stadium showed the Kellam spirit FROM THE INSIDE OUT!

A drum rolled and the suspense blanketed the crowd. Last years King and Queen, Lee Radovich and Beth Mooney, awarded the 1990 King and Queen, Jeremy Ingram and Kim Etheridge.

The spectacular evening ended with an amazing performance from the Marching Knights. The magnificant version of "The Phantom of the Opera" gives a new meaning to the word, "breathtaking".

All and all this evening just goes to show the Kellams' students, faculty and parents how to do "The Knight Thing".

Just do it,*

The Knight Thing

Homecoming was an exciting kickoff to the 1990-1991 school year. Although the football team was defeated, the students never stopped rooting and cheering for them. Morale stayed high and the Kellam spirit prevailed. The half-time homecoming parade provided an extra boost of enthusiasm to Kellam students.

Weeks of creativity, dedication, and hardwork finally paid off in the Homecoming parade. Everything from a Black Culture Club step show to candy-throwing class floats were seen during this half-time extravaganza.

After the game, the band provided a special treat to spectators. As always, presented excellent entertainment to wrap up the festivities of the night.

Building... For A Fresh Look

After the 1989-90 school year and over the summer of 1990, Kellam under went major reconstruction.

As students entered the unfinished school on the first day, they noticed a number of changes that helped liven up Kellam and bring in a new sense of pride.

A few of the changes occurring in the school over the summer were, the newly painted walls, new lights, tiles for the floor and ceiling, cafeteria chairs, and a new fire alarm system.

Two thousand gallons of paint, 1,400 new light fixtures, 6,000 floor tiles, 20,292 ceiling tiles, 600 cafeteria chairs and 8,000 feet of general wire, were used in the renovation. Thirty thousand feet of wire was used for the fire alarm system alone!

Various rooms were reconstructed. The auditorium, as well as the gym and the library, experienced changes. The auditorium is now complete with new seats, lights and paint.

The changes that were done to the gym includes new bleachers, along with new lights, freshly painted walls and a new wooden floor.

Lot of hard work was put into Kellam this summer and was greatly appreciated. Students were shocked by the change of the school. They are very pleased with the difference.

After a long wait, the library opened on Nov. 16, 1990. The library came equiped with new lights, computer, shelves, circulation table and a new alarm system as well. The new equipments purpose is there to make studying easier and more pleasant to the student.

This is all the result of over 60,000 hours of hard work. Along with everything else the bathrooms were retiled and new facilities were added. The guidance office was enlarged and recarpeted. In addition new offices were put in for the administrators. Now Kellam High School looks good as new "From The Inside-Out."

Todays Times...

Yesterdays Clothes

Fashion comes to life in the halls of our school. Expressing individuality has become a top priority in the life of Kellam students. Whether it's with bright colors, or ethnic prints, the newest trends can always be seen around.

The 1960's have become a major influence on todays fashion. Not a day will go by without a sight of a tie dye t-shirt, wide headband or the short skirt.

There is an interesting interaction between the style of the '60's and the look of the '90's. Students are being found in thrift stores pulling out old items to find the authentic look of the '60'

Guys continue to chose the sporty look of surf wear. Quicksilver and O'Neil are amoung the common name brands. The guys are even getting into the more dressy styles, with pleated pants and cuffed hem trousers.

Adam and Eve started the world of fashion, and the styles have been changing ever since.

Music...

The International Language

After school in the dirt parking lot, you are bound to hear a variety of loud sounds coming from the cars. Whether it is Jane's Addiction or M.C. Hammer, the continous battle of car stereos has become a ritual for Kellam students.

Perhaps, before school, you have heard a familiar song and have sung it throughout the day. This is one of the many tactics used to get through the long day at school.

Music can be found in the shopping malls, at the movie theatre, at parties with your friends, and even alone in your room. Does music make the world go around? After all, it is depended on everywhere as apart of communication.

The doors of the Record Bar are always open to music lovers.

Let me see your Ticket, Please

Over the years, the movie theatre has become a common place for teenagers on date night. The decision on what movie to see has sometimes provide a stressful situation.

With the variety of films that are displayed, it is hard to find the time to see them all. Popular horror flicks such as "Child's Play 2" or "Misery", seem to be attention getters at the box office. This year, Sylvester Stallone even returned for another action-packed round of boxing in "Rocky V." If its adventure, comedy, horror, or drama that you want, you can be sure that there is a wide selection from which to choose.

The best way to enjoy a movie is to get a box of popcorn, a large drink, and that special someone to settle down with in the cozy seats of the dark theatre. What a way to spend an evening!

"Winners"

We All Are

Winners was an influencing play that showed some of the typical problems experienced by teens today, such as the pressures of moving, who's in, who's out, and suicide.

It points out that a person should not keep their problems boggled up inside and should stand up for what he/she believes.

Many applauses were given to the cast who performed an exceptional play both nights.

Everyone is a winner in their own way. There will always be someone who makes you feel inferior, just learn to appreciate what you have and like yourself for who you are.

Reaching Out
Across the World

Students from Spain, France, Germany and Japan all braved the trip across the ocean to learn the "American Way." While over here they got to taste a lot of the different types of food. Hamburgers and pizza were among the favorites.

These foreign exchange students also participate in sports and activities such as track and marching band. Among the best aspects here at Kellam were the students and all the extra-curricular activities offered. School uniforms were known to many of the exchange students. Another significance was that you need a car to go anywhere.

"Although it was strange at first, having a new person to live with, we had a great time and will miss Javier," says Kelly Olsen.

These students will be leaving in mid June to go back to their homelands. They will definately exchange American customs with their friends and family.

A Bunch of Turkeys...

Having A Good Time!

No, it's the annual Thanksgiving Student-Teacher Basketball Game. For the fourth year in a row students and teachers have met for a grueling match of muscles, wits and speed. This fourth annual Turkey Classic was a success as the others had been. One difference in this game was that it was the first to be played in the new and improved gymnasium; players assured the new floors made a difference.

Students and teachers enjoyed themselves at the game. While most spectators came to watch the action-packed game, many could not keep their eyes off of some rather peculiar cheerleaders. Reggie Tims, Edmund Tan, Travis Irby; names sound familiar? These were among the cheerleaders, yes cheerleaders at the yearly sporting event. These cross-dressed cuties provided the spirit and enthusiasm during the game.

Those that came to watch the actual players were also in for a treat; whether it was Mrs.Vickers' amazing hookshots or Mrs. Butlers' sneaky stealing tactics, fans were not bored for a single moment.

There were many highlights during the game. One of them was the debut performance of The Strictly-Steppin' drill team. This half-time show provided an extra special surprise as spectators jammed along with the steppers and their self-made beat.

After the half time extravaganza, towards the end of the game the crowd became even more lively.

The game point spread was extremely close throughout the game and ended in a narrow 31-30 victory for the teachers.

The night provided great fun. Although the cheers and chuckles never ceased, the Turkey Classic also had a serious side. The game was not only a social event, it was also a source of money for charity. DECA, sponsor of the game, raised $215 along with 1500 cans of food for the needy.

People

Dearest Amante Canoniz Hello there my best in the country? How are out with the guys? Probably need a woman not. I guess you new people, new yup2. Maybe you should move down to S.D to be near me. Then, maybe I could introduce you to some of my frens. Yes? No? Oh well. I guess you're satisfied w your boring hillbilly life. ✓/K. Keep jokin, bout ya. Well, its years since Thats a LO aren't you into you be.

There are many people who inherit this space which we call Earth. We are of many colors and races holding values and judgements all our own. Luckily, Kellam has many different and unique people and the controversy of racism seems to have diminished; thus bringing out the best in us.

We enter the building seeing before us a vast number of faces. Friends greet each other and talk of the latest gossip There are different fashion statements and opinions on subjects like music and cultures.

In the midst of all the students are the teachers and principals. Yes, without them we wouldn't be able to succeed. The school also has the custodians, cafeteria staff, nurse and guidance counselors to help the day go smoothly.

So, going through these pages you will see the many faces that make up the pride and joy of Kellam High.

It's strange to think that just yesterday that you were a youngster, and happy with your cool zips and you thought that members of the opposite sex were "yucky." Now we are near adults but we still have the little kid in us. Now some of us will be getting married, going to college, getting a job after graduation, and this will all be a memory that lives on.

What A Family

Means to You

High school is where your true self ossoms. At least that is what Kellam has ne for many people. It can be said that ost of the students and staff are great cause, a friendship can be built with both. You will spend four years of your life growing with your high school friends and Kellam seems to add that "family" touch.

Stress & Torture

on a Saturday

Capricious, insipid, hackneyed, altruistic. These are just some of the words that S.A.T. makers use to baffle the human mind.

Whether it is called Student Anxiety Tests or Saturday Amusement Therapy, the Scolastic Aptitude Test is the most dreaded obstacle amoung seniors as they prepare for college. Thanks to the Educational Testing Service, there's nothing more exciting than spending a Saturday morning wrestling with what's left of your brain.

College...

Which one for me?

Applications are confusing, long, and cause a great deal of stress. How do you convince a college that they should admit you and not the other guy with the higher SAT scores?; The essay question of course. The best part of an application is the day you receive your acceptance letter and all the stress was worth it.

What do you

Except?

High school was the big social scene, but we were sophomores then. As juniors we began to buckle down and take school a little more seriously. Then the senior year hit us and the BIG social scene began to fade away as reality filled our heads more. Even though some of our priorities have changed sequence, most of our expectations have been filled.

School...

What we got out of it.

From Huckleberry Finn, to binomials, to understanding the difference between mitosis and meiosis...high school has offered us a challenge. Usually after a test we tend to forget most of the material. Can you recall the formula for finding the volume of a solid? Maybe not but after leaving high school people are ready to proceed with the rest of our lives.

Kellam High

The Next Generation

What is the future for Kellam High students? Perhaps the next President of the United States, or a movie star. We'll be able to look back and think "Hey I helped him with his homework." The possiblity of many doctors, lawyers and great professionals are certainly in the right perspectives. To see the progress of Kellam students after high school should be an exciting adventure.

Senioritis...

We All Get It!

All seniors go through a phase called "Senioritis," a feeling you get that you just want to get out of school. You get careless about everything yet you are so nervous about college, leaving your family and friends. You get a little stuck up towards the lower classmen. It happends to everyone sooner or later but it will happen.

Seniorship...

A Uniqueness

Being a senior is like being on top of the world. They're known, they're carefree and they are even admired. When it comes to stress, they are like magnets-- from college applications to SAT's. So why do underclassmen look up to seniors? It must be that we all look forward to graduating as much as they, only underclassmen have to wait longer.

Graduation, A Time to Celebrate!

It marks a beginning of a new life, a life that we look on with wild expectations. Graduation is proof that yes we made it and it's over! As we heave a sigh of relief, we cannot help having mixed emotions. The greatest concern however, is that hopefully when the graduation caps are thrown into the air, they only land where we can find them.

This is Now

Looking back? Well, we know that the years at Kellam have taught us who our friends are and aren't. We know that we would not be the person we are now without the "Kellam Experience." We would never want to go anywhere else in the Beach but here. We probably really didn't want to come here when we first started high school, and now we probably do not want to leave.

It's Time For ## the big moment

The seniors are under a lot of pressure with college applications and SATs. They deserve respect. Some decide to work hard and others are just hanging in there. Their year started of anew with the renovated school.

A major part of their senior year is the prom. Many months are spent preparing for the big night. When it finally arrives it is time to dance the night away.

Next, comes the big day. GRADUATION! The moment every student anticipates. First comes the long speeches and then the long wait to hear your name called. As you walk across the stage, you are feeling happiness, relief and hesitation. You are almost frightened with the knowledge of having to face the real world.

The Best ## of the Best.

The senior superlatives are an elected group of students chosen by their peers. They are selected according to various categories that can range from Most Athletic to Best Personality.

To be a senior superlative, the student may excel in academics or in just being the class clown. Some express themselves with fashion statements while others, by how well they flirt. Many are athletically inclined while some are born with heart—stopping looks. All of these certain talents are taken in account for when choosing the year's senior superlatives.

Getting selected is a very special achievement for many. Looking back in the yearbook twenty years later, a student will relive some of their best high school memories as they once again see their picture as a senior superlative.

Knock, Knock

Honey, your date is here!

As the years pass, you begin to tell stories of your high school years. Chances are you will remember the relationships that you had at one time. Relations develop with teachers, friends and especially those with the opposite sex. So, what stories do you begin to tell your kids? Probably about the dreaded ritualistic introduction to the parents then off to a movie, or to dinner.

These are supposed to be the best years of our lives, to be lived to the absolute fullest. The dating game isn't always an easy one to play, sometimes the dates do not go as planned. Then again others end up with their high school sweethearts forever.

Overcrowding, The Big Squish

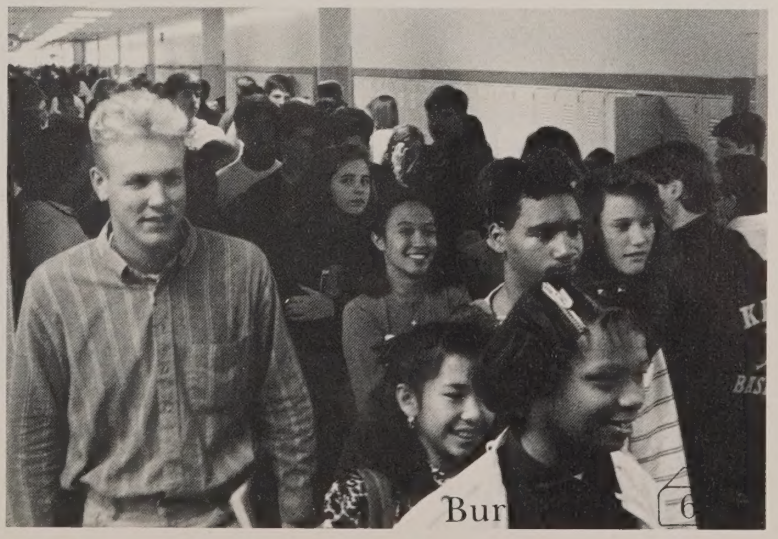
Kellam's large student body puts quite a strain on everyone's day. To relieve the "traffic" students in the back section of the school are released from class a little early. Even so there are still back ups.

Overcrowding takes on several different forms. Students are blocked from classroom entrances, some from lockers, while others stop to talk with friends.

All in all, to try and survive the "Big Squish," hold on to your things and brace yourself. It is going to be a tight squeeze.

Students experience crowdness as they change classes.

Moving slowly through the crowd, students make their way to class.



"Good Morning Kellam High!" Jennifer Madriaga annouces in to the microphone.

Christina Wise reads the morning announcements to the entire school.

Good Morning

Kellam High!

The morning announcements, how can we get through the day without them? We are greeted with the always cheerful and outgoing voice of Jennifer Madriaga. She reads through the pledge and gives us vital information for the days schedule.

The morning announcements give us information regarding clubs, sports updates, school information and of course the "Special Person of the Day." The afternoon announcements keep us updated on the never ending bus changes.

These two sets of announcements are the start and the end of the day, so listen up Kellam High!

"I'm late,
Get out of my way!!"

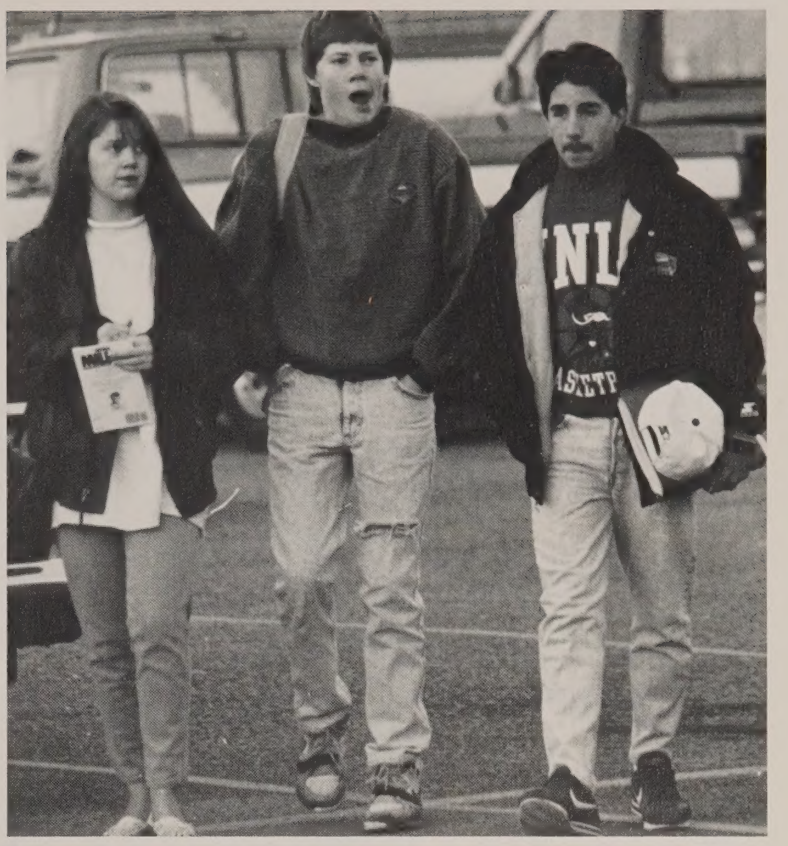
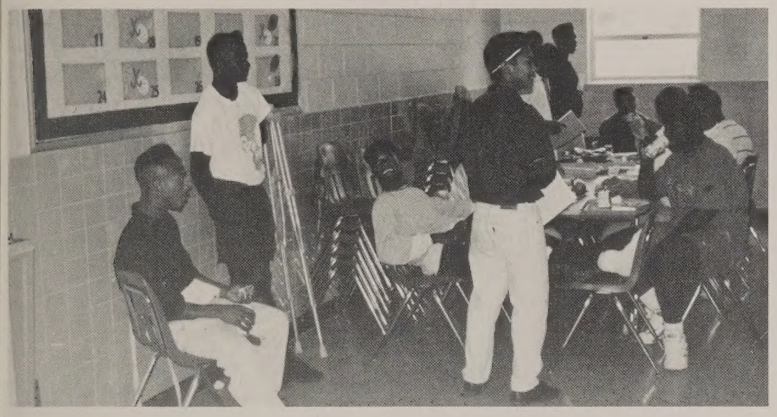
Rriinngg! That's the tardy bell, but why are there still people in the hallways? They're late for class.

There are many excuses for tardiness some acceptable, some not. Students that are late in the morning go to the office for a late pass, whether it was because of busses or other unbeleivable situations. Others who just roam the halls walk in with their own excuse or even tried to sneak into class.

Best student excuses for tardiness are: over sleeping, talking to others, waiting for friends and even stuck lockers. Some may even be true!



Walking into school to start a new day are three students probably thinking that it is too early to get up.



Are these guys really in a hurry to go to their next bell?

Junior Class

We're Almost There!

The Junior Class had a very successful year. They worked hard to raise money for their 1991 ring dance. Fundraising was the main goal since funds were almost depleted. Serious efforts in selling candy and novelty items netted over $1600.00.

The purchase of a class ring is a major event in the life of a junior classmen. Raising money and selecting a ring style proved to be a hassel for many. The rings were well worth it, for they are symbolic of all of the high school years.

Junior DeWayne Foster stated, "Being a junior is great, as the year goes on I look forward to becoming a senior."

Afterhours

Places to go

When not in school, all students find ways to use their time. For some, this means party time; its home from school just long enough for a quick shower and a change of clothes. Other students spend this valuable time working to improve themselves at their favorite sport. Yet, there is still the working person who rushes to work in order to put money into their pockets. From McDonalds to Red Lobster we find our students hard at work. The social person rushes home to answer the phone, while others sleep. Others simply hurry home just to catch some Z's. The time that all these students is the time they take to do their

Tennis Shoes:

Take a peak at my sneaks!

Whether it be Nike, Fila, Etonic, or Reebok, there is no doubt tennis shoes are one of the few fashions that never go out of style. Tennis shoes come in a wide variety of styles, sizes, and colors. Sneakers ranging from the traditional type shoes to the modern design. Pump-up high tops can be seen pounding the pavement. According to Junior Jonathon Butler, "Your tennis shoes make a statement about yourself. You can tell a lot about a person by the type of shoes he wears."

Whether you wear them for a personal statement or a fashion statement, your sneakers are one important component of the wardrobe.

Injuries

From Head To Toe

Life has its little ups and lowns. Many of our students ıave experienced the down side ıf life by injuries. In our ıallways and classrooms we've een casts on arms and legs, ıeckbraces, cruches, splints and ıf course bandages. When hurt students are helped by classmates to and from classes. Injuries have lasted from a few days to a few months. Sometimes the pain comes from the inside out but we all learn to live with it. After all, experiencing a broken arm or leg is part of growing up.

On the Go

Today, everyone and everything are on the move. There is a desperate need for fast food. In fact, getting things "to go," has become so popular, that the fast food chains have been popping up everywhere. This could be due to living in the fast lane.

How can we go to these nice s down resturants when we hav got to make time for other in porant things? This only prov that our lives would not be th same without the Burrito fro Taco Bell or the Big Mac fro McDonalds. Be Thankful.

Uniqueness

That is the Question

The color of our eyes, style and cut of our hair and the way we dress are the obvious characteristics which make each and every one of us unique. But personality is what actually sets each one of us apart from the other? Are you shy, outgoing or somewhere in between?

Academic choices also show uniqueness. Everyone excels in a certain area.

These are the basics of the bases of uniqueness, there has to be something that makes us all an individual.

Different expressions add to the fun during the first pep ralley.

Sophomores,

Ready for '93

This year, the main goal of the sophomore class was to find interesting projects that would boost everyone's spirit. Their first project was a candy guessing contest. A great deal of people participated in it and a good amount of money was raised. Maria Sands guessed the right number of candy in the jar and won the entire jar for herself!

The Sophomore Class also did a couple of community service projects. Last, but certainly not least, the tenth grade senate engaged in thinking of money making ideas to help raise the funds for the next two years at Kellam.

Taking a Stand

The Freshman Class

The Freshmen have been very busy this year. They participated in Homecoming with a decorated truck. They also have pen-pals within the senate. The officers include Kim Ingram - President, Vanessa Tersol - Vice President, Lori Reilly - Secretary, and Jenni Cooper - Treasurer.

Fundraisers were a must for the Freshman class. Squeeze bottles with the Knights logo made a good profit.

For their first year at Kellam these ninth graders are certainly taking a stand. On Valentine's Day cookies were baked for the Courthouse Fireman.

The Freshman participate with a decorated truck during Homecoming.

Rocky Heath pays very close attention in class.

The Cheese,

What a Ride!

All of us at one time or another have experienced a ride on "The Big Cheese." Daily bus transporation for students is a safe and free way to get to and from school.

There are always a few drawbacks to being bused. Buses breaking down or being late o arrival have students complain ing. They also pack you in lik sardines.

Despite these problems, buse give friends time to converse o just relax.

Some students take longer to wake up than others in the morning.

"The Big Cheese," commonly known as a school bus waits for students to be dismissed from school.

To get into the holiday spirit, Mr. Smith's class decorates the door.

Tis the season

To get creative

The F.C.A. decided to do something different for Christmas, decorate doors! Many classes participated spending days decorating their doors in a special way. Colors of red and green were visible everywhere. Different pictures and designs adorned the doors such as, ornaments, signs, even a tree! Other ideas included lights, glitter and even icicles to make each door stand out. The winning doors were Ms. Adams third place, Ms. Toscano second place, and first place went to Mrs. T. Smith.

The door decorating was a success. It truely helped brightened the hallways for the holidays.

The Spanish classes sing Christmas carols.

Hairstyles

All Cuts & Styles

An essential part here at Kellam besides clothes, is your hair style. There are many different types of styles ranging from curly to straight, long to short, or even no hair. Head ware from the '60's is coming back. We've also seen hair change with the seasons. During the hot days there were signs of never ending pony tails and on colder days the hair came down. Guys had longer hair and girls had shorter hair. There are also changes in color, from tints to bleaches; thus, allowing people to change their hair colors during the year.

Let's Eat!

Lunch! The best bell of the ay. Lunch for many is the only ving grace period throughtout ie day. It's provides a time for eople to socialize, do a little omework and even enjoy the sty morsels provided by the cafeteria staff. No matter which lunch bell you eat, it is definitly the highlight of your day. Even with its loudness, long lines and crowed tables, the cafeteria is a much appreciated part of the school at Kellam.

Never a Dull Moment

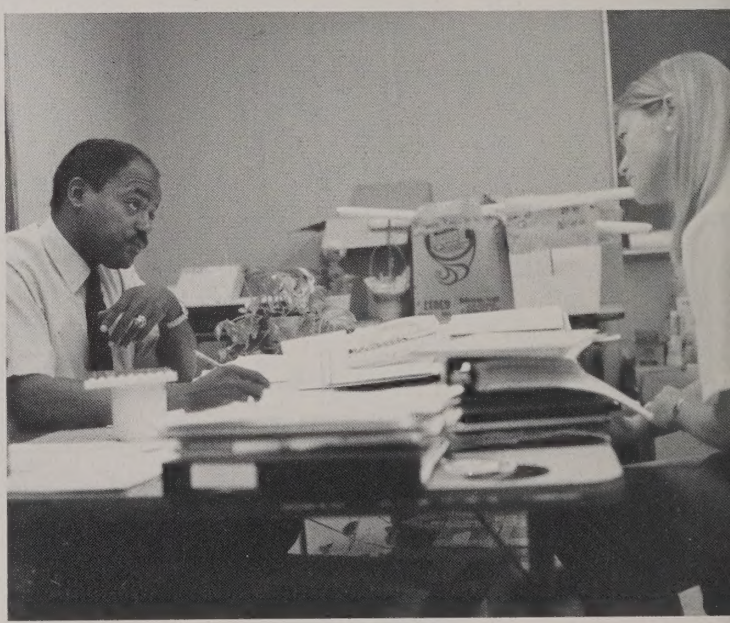
From the time they arrive at 7:00 am to the time they leave at 3:30 pm, the administration staff works hard to keep the school in order.

Mrs. Forsythe mainly works with the principals and Mrs. Jarvis deals with all the absences. "No two days are alike," says Mrs. Reed who works with suspensions, answers phone calls and other necessary work.

Each school day and non-school day, this group faces problems. Whether serious or not, the problems are well thought through and resolved. Amazingly, this group that works in the office keep smiles on their faces.

The administrators are always busy with one thing or another. No task is too big for them.

Our administration staff adds to the factors that allows our school to continue to run smoothly. They deserve a great deal of credit for their continuous efforts and accomplishments.



During the summer the office was located in a portable where Mr. Williams and Mrs. Porter discuss the upcoming year.

All Work,

And No Play?

It is amazing that teachers have any spare time with all of the hard work they devote to teaching. Although their time is limited, many teachers still find time to workout at home and at health spas.

Grading papers takes up a great deal of time as does averaging grades.

Spending time with the family is always top priority with our teachers.

With all there is to do some teachers even seem to find time to do some shopping. After a hard day at work, I'm sure all they really want to do is relax.

Overall, teachers are very dedicated workers and deserve all the spare time they can get.

All it Takes to Be

A Teacher

What is a good teacher? One who challenges the students and makes learning interesting. Good teachers make the subject come alive and keep the attention of their students.

Many teachers put in a lot of time and effort to make their schedules run smoothly and class time seems to fly. A little humor added helps release tension and stress in the classroom.

Most students appreciate a teacher that will relate to them and make an effort to learn more about them. Patience is another necessary asset to help the students feel more at ease.

friends forever. I love you like a brother. Don't

Do you ever think of what goes on behind the scenes at Kellam? There are more people than you know that make this school tick. The custodians help keep the school clean, while the cafeteria workers cook our lunches. The nurse gives us a place to sleep when we do not feel well, and the bookkeeper keeps track of all the money in the school. Of course there are the teacher assistants which are always guaranteed for a smile.

We learn as much from them as they do from us. A lot of hard work and thought goes into the school that is taken for granted. So we would like to thank all of these people that are "Behind the Scenes."

Academics

As we grow older and wiser we begin to understand the importance of receiving a scholastic education. Our faculty, along with our parents play an important role in encouraging us to stive for better grades and a stonger span of knowledge. Often times we rebel to this interference in our learning proccess. However, without a proper education, it would be difficult to be the superior students we can be.

The curriculum at Kellam is extremely diverse. The administration and faculty see to it that we are offered first class choices for our future.

Having a strong academic program is one thing of which we should be proud. We know we are receiving the best education possible, and it shows inside and out.

Working Hard

On the many fine arts

There are many types of fine arts. One of the most popular may be the fine art of music. Some students take music as a class, while others take it as an extra curricular activity. All these students dedicate much of their time working to improve their music skills. Such as our number one marching band and other music students.

You would also find Technical Drawing and all the art classes are grouped under the fine arts. The Technical Drawing students learn to draw figures from a square to a house. The art students learn to be more creative in their abstract drawings and more realistic in their realistic drawings. Most art students enjoy their art class and find it a great way to spend a bell.

Other students spend their elective bell in Home Economics cooking and learning useful skills. As do the Shop or Technical Engineering students do each day. Most students find time to take at least one class of fine arts in their high school career. So whether it's band or shop, students are learning skills they will never forget in the arts.

English & History

Changing with Time

English is a subject required for a high school diploma. Without English, there wouldn't be much understanding between the people who make up the melting pot of this great nation.

English is a language spoken by the many people in this world. Knowing English, is a big advantage. English should be a language for all.

History is taught in many schools. For some, it is enjoyable, but for others it is not as pleasant. History is a subject where we learn what went on in the past. What we know about the past can put things in perspective in the future. History will always be a part of our daily lives.

Technical World

A Technical Language

Foreign languages are a very impotant section of the business world today. Languages help to break the communication barrier. There are many languages to choose from, ranging from Spanish to Russian and French to German, even Latin. These languages are very popular with our students here at Kellam.

Spanish and French are the most popular language classes taken. Some students venture out for a challenge by taking Russian, German or Latin. No matter what language you choose, you are definately set for the future.

The business world today is very competitive. It not only takes brains and determination but knowing a foreign language is quite handy.

There are various business courses available for those students who wish to get an early start. These include Typing I and II, Word Processing, Accounting, Marketing and Fashion Design.

Typing is very popular with students for many reasons. Many take it for preparation for college, and some take it to help them in outside activities such as after-school jobs.

This Equation or That,

It's All Science

Math is a very important way of life. Even ough some of us may not like it, where uld you be without it? Math is important people working in a large or small busi- ss. Math teaches us everything from frac- ns and exponents to trinomial and geo- etric theorms. No matter where you work what you do, you will always have a need for math.

Science teaches you about the world surrounding us. Science covers everything from the stars and planets in the sky to the ground you walk on. You learn about things that are invisible to the naked eye and others so large you cannot see the whole at even one glance!

Special Classes

For Special Students

The nineties is the decade for keeping fit. aving physical education offered in our nools is a perfect ways to keep up with the nes. Students can play football, basket-ll, and even learn new games like ulti-ate frisbee and handball. So why do we all ead gym so much? It's simple: dressing t! A majority of the school dislikes the ct that a requirement for taking P.E. is the ct that you must dress out for the class. nis is why students prefer health day to P.E. days.

The Special Education Department of Kellam High School incorporates academic and vocational skills, extracurricular activities and social adjustment into the curriculum. This provdes many students the opportunity to improve their study and learning skills by attending classes that remediates their weaknesses. This also assists students in increasing their acedemic achievement.

Anyone who has gone to a sports event has experience the pride of winning or fel the agony of defeat.

The coach provides inspiration and guidance. Th coach is a vital part of the team, setting rules and regulations that are to be followed.

So, to the players and coaches at Kellam that wor hard for their team, congratulations! Without the work, determination, and dedication our school woul lose an important part of it twenty-ninth year tradition being a great competitor in t field of sports.

Fields of Green,

Hearts of Gold

Football is a spartan game. The term spartan refers to "individuals who's character is marked with strict self discipline and great courage," persons who are "undaunted by pain or danger." It is played by the young and old, who desire to possess these qualities. Those who seek the glory of victory on the field of battle, sometimes must taste the bitterness of defeat.

A Friday night during the fall school season, is typically spent at the local high school football stadium. These young men, with their physical and mental prowess, use brains and brawn as they fight for yardage, first downs, completed passes, tackles and touchdowns against the rival Beach District schools.

All efforts and hours of practice come to play as the team steps on the field to represent their school each Friday night. The team includes players, coaches, managers, student body, faculty and administration; all share in the Pride of Kellam.

It was with renewed vigor that the new coaching staff and the team embraced this season. All participants gave their all, each one seeking to bring the glory of victory to Kellam High. It is with great pride that we salute these "team players" for the tireless efforts they displayed. GO, FIGHT, WIN, KELLAM HIGH!

The Cheerleaders Scream...

Give Me A K!

Who charges the crowd with energy during school sports? Why, the cheerleaders of course. The cheerleaders are the backbone of Kellam spirit. They dedicate a lot of time and hard work to their sport. Not only must they be flexible and strong, the cheerleaders must be able to project their voices loud and clear.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Wisman, the cheerleading sponsor, the cheerleaders continue to elevate their sport to new levels.

Cheerleader, Catherine Calma says "Cheerleading may be tiring and time-consuming, but the rewards are well worth it."

We should commend our cheerleaders, for their efforts to preserving school spirit.

"Our Girls... Stick With It!"

The Field Hockey team has always been the spunk of Kellam High School. They are the girls bold enough to be athletes yet still remain distinctly feminine. Lets face it: field hockey has always been a dangerous sport. Rough and ragged moves are featured on the field, but in school their prim and proper attitudes are definetly displayed. Aside from these contrasting personalities on and off the field, the field hockey team ended the season in sixth place position and a 3-9-2 record.

The teams basic set-up was seniors and juniors but, a hand full of sophomores and freshmen aided in powering the ball up and down the field.

Co-captain, Tricia Haas and Tara Ambito displayed an awesome performance and along with other seniors, will be missed greatly next year. However, their teammates being left behind will probably excell even further for their superiors have taught them well.

Once again Mrs. Debi Strausbaugh has chosen a magnificent team.

Tennis Players Scream...

Its A Match!!

After many trials and errors, not to mention many scrapped knees and bruises, the girls tennis team finished an excellent season.

Showing their strength, the girls defeated Princess Anne and Norview. These victories helped keep the girls spirits soaring.

To show their commitment to their team, the girls would stay after every weekday from the end of school till 5:30pm. Even if it were to become late in the day the girls would still stay to perfect their swings. This not only showed their dedication for the sport but also their love of it.

To play tennis you must have the proper skills. The Kellam girls tennis team had great skills and were a challenge to the other high schools. Although they lost some matches, that didn't stop them from trying. The girls gave it their best.

There is no doubt Coach Shearin Anderson put together an excellent team for the 1990-91 tennis season.

It's Not All Putt-Putt...

It's Serious Golfing

Entering the season with a positive attitude, the golf team and Coach Proffitt, predicted a good year ahead. The eight team members worked hard and resulted in winning their first beach district in five years. This was accomplished by beating Green Run by 72 strokes. With such outstanding golfers as Brian Cherwa, Sam Allen and Mike Hare, the team proved to always accomplish good scores as well provide tough competition for the other teams.

Golf is definitely a sport of patience and concentration. The Kellam Golf team proved well in that area. Many obstacles had to be overcome but not once did it stop them. They put a lot of time into golf that showed their dedication.

The golfing Knights ended the season with an overall record of four and seven and finished seventh in the beach district tournament. Their lowest round was against Norview, shooting 316. The golfers are congratulated on a job well done.

Its Time To...

Keep Up The Speed

Cross Country is challenging. Hard work is needed to become as fast as possible. The team practices for long hours and days at a time. Kellam's team is willing to carry the physical exhaustion and nervous fluttering before every race.

To feel the thrill of success and the agony of defeat is just part of all sports. However in cross country there is the wind thrashing across your face, the long hall, the driving sound of competitors feet pounding the ground, and the constant desire to go the distance.

This years cross country team proves to be strong and their season was one of victory rather than defeat. Races average about three miles. Your endurance has to be strong in order to withstand the incredibly long run.

The boys and girls cross country teams had an extremely successful season. A lot of hard work and time was put in but the thrill of victory is always well worth it. Much time was spent working out and training, it definitely paid off.

Coach Bernard commented on how far the team has come in the past two years, "At this time two years ago a team didn't even exist and now we have not only a team, but a winning team. Their races were thrillingly close."

We've often been known as a country hick school but in saying this, it just proves Kellams' possessive love for the natural world and the cross country runners prove this.

A long climb to

Fourth at State

Kellam's wrestling team did an exceptional job this year. Even though they did not place tops in the Beach District, they did advance five wrestlers to the state tournament.

The regular season was much tougher than the tournaments because of the many injuries received. Reid Monaghan, Jason Kaufen and Carlton Mason were out for most of the season.

The Knights at Districts placed fourth overall. There were a total of six wrestlers that went to districts. Adam Mickiewicz, placed fourth in his weight class. Among the other five in the tournament were Mike Woodward, Leon Flora, Reid Monaghan, Jeremy Ingram, and Terry Nelson.

When the state tournament began in Richmond Kellam brought five wrestlers. When the wrestling was over, Reid Monaghan and Jeremy Ingram boasted State Championships for Kellam. Mike Woodward also placed sixth. What an ending!

The Girls Gym Team

Flip for Points

The girl's gymnatics team opened their season at the South Eastern Invitational meet in Menchville, where they showed many teams just what they were made of. This year's team, composed of mostly freshmen and sophomores with one junior and a senior, worked hard everyday after school for three months and finished with two wins and five losses. Their victories were over Bayside and First Colonial.

The Lady Knights were led by senior tri—captains, Teresa Roddy, junior, Elizabeth Hooker, and sophomore Jessica Walker. Two gymnasts that turned everyone's head were sophomore, Michelle Hamilton and freshman, Lisa Bennetti. These young Lady Knights represented Kellam in the regionals and later advanced to the state meet.

Toward the end of the season the Lady Knights ran into trouble when Teresa Roddy encountered back problems and Elizabeth Hooker bruised her foot. They both were out of competition for a few meets.

As the season came to an end it was very obvious that they had had a great deal of talent and potential.

The Ball Bounces

The Lady Knights Basketball Team played a very exciting season this year. Although their record did not show it, they improved with each and every game. The team, being very young, really grew up on the court by the end of the season. Every player made a significant contribution to the development of excellent team play.

The team's most valued player was Carrie Crofton, who scored 19 points in their game against Salem. The Lady Knights received scoring from different players with each game. Against Maury, Shelbi Felts scored 13 points and against Bayside she scored 14 points. Tina Estes succeeded in scoring 10 points in their game with Princess Anne.

Defensively, the Lady Knights also improved. Specifically, Lori Reilly and Shannon VonMueller really turned on the intensity. Lori held standout guard Kim Powers to one field goal when she guarded her in a home game in February.

Overall, the Kellam Girl's Basketball Team tried their hardest. They know what it takes to succeed and not to give up. Coach Samuel Epps did a terrific job to coach this group of fine girls.

Taking the Shot,

For Two

The season proved to be both a challenging and successful year for the Kellam Mens Basketball team. Although in the beginning of the year things were rough for the team, not having a coach, but they pulled out and ended the season in good standings.

This was the first season Coach Atherton took over a high school basketball team. From coaching at the University of Kentucky, Coach Atherton brought with him the much needed guidance and training that the mens team sought out.

Sophomore Troy Whitney, a member of the team said, "Coach is strong. He works you hard on the court and in the classroom."

Although the men were not able to enjoy a winning season, they put forth great effort and ended up sixth in the district. They finished the season with a 6—16 record.
Each member contributed their time, sweat and energy to the team.

In conclusion, Kellam's Mens Basketball team under the supervision and motivation of Coach Atherton, worked hard to create a basketball program the school can be proud of.

The boy's and girl's Indoor Track teams have worked very hard this season to make it to where they are. In track there is more to it than just running. Other events are involved. Besides running, they also do pole vaulting, hurdles, shotputting and jumping, not to mention the drills and training. There is a lot of hard work involved here that takes a great deal of energy to do well in and do well they have.

Jennifer Beauchamp, a runner, came 5th in the region, 4th in district and was one of the top 15 in the state. Chris Dolinar was the District Champion in the 2 mile which lead him to place 4th in region and was one of the top 15 in the state. Orin Reams, a pole vaulter, came in 4th in the District, 2nd in region, and was one of the top 15 in state. Myra Simpson, a hurdler, came in 2nd in the District, 3rd in the region and 9th in the state. Leory Foster came in 1st of the District, 2nd in region and 7th in state in the triple jump.

The boy's and girl's indoor track teams were coached wonderfully by Coach Anderson. They could not have done as well without his terrific ability to do their very best and excell. The track team had a great season!

Lady Knights

Swing into Action

The 1991 Kellam Softball team is a spectacular mix of talented girls. This year, there are nine returning players, five of whom are seniors. Coach Rinica complimented on the excellent group of five freshman that made the team. "It is important to have a powerful young group of girls. The experience they will gain from playing this year will unquestionably pay off in the next few seasons," he stated.

Because of their outstanding performance last season, the Kellam Knights were invited to the Bayside Invitational at Little Creek Amphibious Base. Here, they play against Annadale High School of Fairfax, Virginia.

The Beacon has predicted the Kellam Lady Knights to be one o the top three teams in the district. They are surely ready to ful fill this flattering prediction. The team has high hopes for the sesaon. Winning the Beach District is on their list of things to do as well as going on to State. Though, winning State is a dream that all high school sports teams have, it is extremely important to have the spirit and right attitude when participating in any major tournament. There is no question that our Lady Knights are the perfect all—around team to do it.

Baseball is a sport that combines both coordination and difficult skills. Training is very time consuming and tiresome but this years baseball players have made good use of it. They know that working hard really pays off and for them it has. Many hours were put into the drills to perfect their performance.

Coach Leon Proffitt has done a wonderul job coaching this years boys baseball team. He really encouraged them to do their best and try their hardest. His great coaching ability led the boys baseball team to a great season.

Players now have the option of playing year—round. There is a summer camp to help players develop better skills for playing the game.

The team consisted of many competent and hard working young men. They were determined to give it their all and win. With such great attitudes and a love for the sport all they could do was be a success. The 1991 boys baseball team was great a great success..

Hard Work Pays Off For

A Kickin' Season

The Girls' Soccer team has kicked off to good start this season. The girls are looking to improve from last year and are expecting to do better in districts than years past.

Over thirty girls tried out for the soccer team. Twenty—six are now on the team. Coach Roberson strongly believes in getting his team in shape for the vigorous season. The players say practice is a lot of hard work. They run about three miles everyday. "Will we ever stop running?", is a commonly asked question among the team members.

This year's team is largely composed of sophomores and freshmen. Despite a young team, the Lady Knights have learned from the experience of the returning juniors and seniors. They have also supplied guidance and advice for many of the rookie players. Junior and leading scorer for the team, Erin Arellano said, "Our team is new and inexperienced, yet we have skill and a great positive attitude." It is this positive attitude that keeps the Girls' Soccer team going stong.

With great leadership from co-captains, Shannon Von Mueller and Shannon Curtis and Coach Roberson, the team holds their own during the games and provide a great challenge for all of their opponents.

Reaching Goals

Men Work Together

At the beginning of the spring season, the Boys Soccer team had many expectations. Despite the slow start into the season, they were not discouraged and tried more intensely to attain a higher standing in the beach.

Each player had his own talents and abilities to contribute to the team. The practices were long and grueling for the guys,but the practices would eventually help in perfecting their ability to work together as a team; which to them is the utmost goal they could reach.

Mr. Schmitter, the Boy's Soccer coach said, "Kellams program has grown in the last four seasons and we are learning for even more growth." Many of the players have seen the progression of the soccer team over the years. This was partly due to the combination of the skilled returners, such as Trey Smith, who is a team captain, with the raw techniques of the newcomers to the team, one of which was Javier Cereceda.

Mr. Schmitter also said that this was one of the best groups he has ever worked with. They are a great bunch of guys and know how to have a good time out on the field, which is what this sport is all about.

With a Win

The Kellam's Boys' Tennis team hit off to great success this 1991 Spring season. The team appeared much stronger with its combination of new flavor and experience to its starting line—up.

Several top ranked players are expected to lead the team to victory. Ranked first was senior Rudy Lumbroso. Ranking in order from second to sixth respectively are: Shawn Pilkington, James Tallmadge, Wayne Trochesset, Drew Meredith, Brian McComb.

There is a very wide array of talent on the team. When asked which of the team members was the star player, Coach Weiss answered, "There's no such thing as a star player. When it comes to Kellam's tennis team, each match counts the same whether it's scored by the first ranked player or the last ranked."

Good reviews and favorable predictions about the 1991 Boys' Tennis team have helped team members keep a positive and very optimistic attitude during practice as well as during games and throughout the season.

So far, the team's vigorous training and instruction, from Coach Weiss, has paid off by leading them on to win most of their matches this year. The team hopes to continue its streak of success the rest of the season with hard working dedication.

Run, Run
Catch Me If You Can

On a beautiful spring afternoon, who else do you expect to find running around the field? The outdoor track team, of course.

A bright season is expected of this year's outdoor track team, which consists of nineteen returners and two hard working managers. The majority of this years team are underclassmen, which makes a young team, but they do have the ability to learn to be a major threat in years to come.

Looking ahead, Coach Anderson expects the team to do well in the districts. A lot of preparation is being made, including practices after school and even on Saturdays. Competing in Indoor Track basically prepared teammates for the outdoor season. The teams conditions all year to improve skills, hoping to peak for the district meet.

Atheletes compete in events such as the shot put, the discus throw, the long and high jumps, hurdles and various meter races and relays. The team members, managers and the coaches, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Graham, all show a positive outlook for the upcoming meets against tough competitors.

Take Control!

The Kellam senates are always out there making money for their class, although some more than others.

The Freshman senate are out for the party and having a good time. They do make some money off activities such as Valentines cookies for the school fireman and selling squeeze bottles.

The Sophomore senate also has a good time while they make money. Their activities include coming up with the idea of person of the month, candy guess, and secret pals. They also hold meetings about once every two weeks.

The Junior senate organized the ring dance this year and also picked the junior of the month.

The Senior senate is the highest senate. This senate is led by Ms. Bryant. These students work to make money for their greatest accomplishment, the Prom.

For Future Leaders

The SCA or Student Cooperative Assosiaction is a club for the school. Everyone is a member whether you are a part of the executive council, a homeroom representative, or just a student involved in activities.

Sponsored by Mrs. Babb, the SCA made Homecoming a success along with Spirit Week. There were a door decorating contests for Valentines Day and Christmas. Another Spirit Week was sponsored with days such as Twin Day and Sport Day.

FCA, which stands for Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an activity for those Kellam athletes who are involved in church and sports for school. For fun they had a Field Day to show off their strength.

I.C.C. is a part of the SCA. In the I.C.C. students representing each club approve or disapprove club projects presented to them. All projects must be approved by the I.C.C. before they can be done. They meet once a month to discuss the ideas for the club projects.

All of these clubs are very important to the school and without them other clubs would be at a total loss.

Performing

With Style And Pride."

The Drama Department is fortunate enough to have a wide variety of talented actors and actresses.

The drama department consists of two major groups, the Drama Club and the Thesbians. While the Drama Club is basically composed of students interested in acting for pleasure or recreation, the Thesbians are made up of more experienced students. Thesbians are the elite of the Drama Department. Any student can be a part of the Drama Club, however, in order to become a Thesbian you must earn a certain amount of points.

The Black Culture Club is a proud group of students dedicated to preserving their heritage. Many Afro—American students are active in Kellam's B.C.C. Anyone interested in learning about black culture and traditions may be a member. During February, Black History Month, the B.C.C. celebrated the achievments of various blacks in history. They also engaged in other fun activities such as having holiday parties, singing and dancing. The B.C.C. can probably be summed up best by Junior, Stephanie Robinson, "This year's club is really kickin'."

The B.C.C. is not the only club that is really kicking this year. This was the first year Kellam has had a Strictly Steppin' Drill Team, and it has been a big success. This year's drill team really jammed during half—time basketball games. They have showed their school spirit and cheered on players with there unique style of dance.

The Key Club, one of the largest high school service organizations in the world, is made of over133,000 members in fourteen countries. Several of Key Club's projects include the "Mr. Legs" contest to benifit the Sea Turtle Survival Fund, Mistletoe Grams to support the Joy Fund, several visits to nursing homes, and the "Branch out for Life Project" in which members planted trees for sponsors donating the funds to third world health clinics.

Future Homemakers of America (FHA) is a national youth organization which combines service, social, and community projects receiving much recognition in the community. FHA is a co—curricular organization in which students strive to incorporate family living skills with academics in order to become better consumers.

Responsible Educated Adolescents Can Help or R.E.A.C.H. is an organization set up to help keep students off drugs as well as to help out those who are on drugs. One of the club's projects was Red Ribbon Week which was planned to show that students want a drug—free school. A project which REACH is working on is setting up peer counceling for those students who are involved in drugs.

The levels of expertise in the Kellam Bands are varied. With a love of music shared as a common interest for each of the band students, the class has always been proven to be rewarding and it gives students the opportunity to display their individual musical talents. As Diane Johnson, a Junior says, "Band can be a difficult, challenging class, but it can also be a lot of fun!" Considering the superb performances that have been seen this year, it is obvious that the students are very dedicated and hard working.

The Marching Knights can be seen during half time at the football games, at competitions and parades performing to "Phantom of the Opera" music.

All of the students are proud to have such an excellent band program.

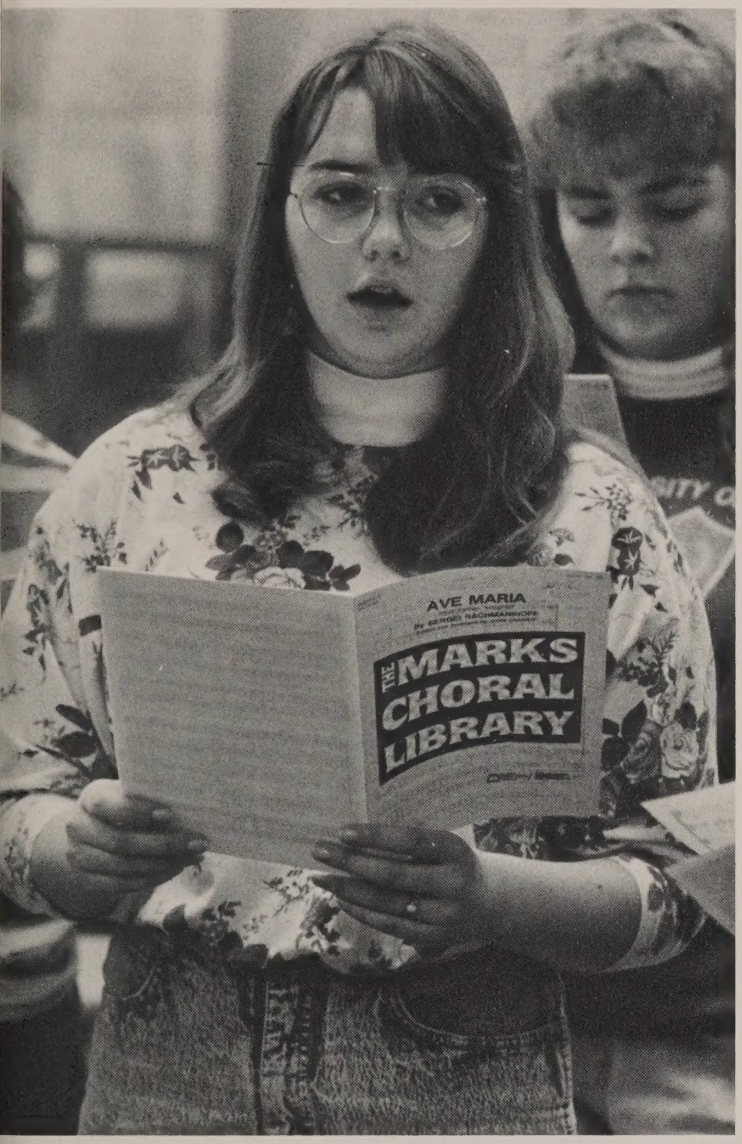
A student sings along with other chorus members.



There are many ways to express your musical talents.

Madrigals and Show Choir, under the direction of Jessica Scarangella, had a very busy year filled with concerts, competitions and changes. There were several sacred concerts performed at the beginning of the year followed by Christmas concerts at Lynnhaven Mall and the annual winter concert.

Ms. Scarangella left at the end of the first semester to begin work on her doctrine at Vanderbilt University. The students were supportive of her professional endevors. They went on to enter the Fiesta—Val competition in Williamsburg on April 26 and ended the year with a spring concert.

This is the second year of the Orchestra. Several of the students have been members of the Virginia Youth Symphony Orchestra, Regional Orchestra and All—City Orchestra. Others have participated in the Solo and Ensemble Festival and have attended the JMU Spring String Thing weekend. Some are even fortunate enough to be involved in taking private lessons. This class is open to all string players where a fine art credit can be earned.

The Monogram Club, a service club, is an honorary organization whose members are required to earn a varsity letter to be eligible for membership. They provide an environment for fellowship for athletes of all Kellam sports.

The Monogram Club presents the most prestigious athletic award at Kellam each spring, this is the SPARC award. Fund raisers provide funds for the Jim Webster Scholarship, awards for excellence in academics for student athletes.

DECA is an organization that sponsors many programs. Their goal is to educate students by having State and District Leadership Conferences. DECA honors the teachers by holding an Employer Appreciation Banquet.

DECA provides many benefits for the student body at Kellam. They have an after school concession stand. They also sponsor a New York fieldtrip for students who participate in their fashion shows.

VICA stands for Vocational Institutional Cooperation Association. Members of VICA goes to the Vocational Technology School to enhance their skills for future jobs. VICA offers benefits for all Vo Tech students.

The helping organizations do their part for the single purpose of making the world a better place.

The Peace Corp helps students understand and learn more about making relations with a forgein nation or community. They have begun a cross—culture exchange with Guatemala where they are aiding in the constuction of a school. They also help animal shelters and the needy. In school they collect and recycle paper.

The Kellam Helping Society, once Junior Civitan, has had two successful blood drives, sponsored a family during Christmas , and helped conduct the Angel Tree Child Project.

The Kellam Video Club gives students the experience of filming and video production. The Video Club tapes various activities such as concerts, plays, and presentations.

Last but not least, the Office Helpers run errands for guidance and the main office.

Business & Writing

A perfect pair

Before class Sheila Scriven stops to talk to a friend.

The Literary Art Club designs a magazine called the "Knightwriter." Published once a year, it is a collection of poetry, prose, stories and artwork made for the students by the students. The club tries desperately to persuade fellow classmates to try and submit their best literary work. For the 1990 issue, the "Knightwriter" won a Trophy Class Award which was the first of a kind for a Kellam publication.

The newspaper staff works hard to publish "The Roundtable." They include articles on sports, teachers, a calendar of events and occasionally features an article about a special Kellam student. As a change this year "The Roundtable" was sent to students homes for the parents as well as for the students to enjoy.

The F.B.L.A. is designed for all students taking a business course. During the meetings, they discuss COE and have guest speakers explain their roles in the business world. As an end of the year project, F.B.L.A. chooses certain members to attend business conventions all over the country.

In Communication,

Out Isolation

Forein Language clubs offer students a chance to meet other students interested in the same dialect. Club members get additional information and input about the cultures which use the language. They get to learn about topics class time does not provide. These clubs offer the students a taste of the language by music, foods, activities and voices of experience from those who have lived in or visited these countries.

Language bridges the gap between cultures. These clubs help students to learn and communicate easier with one another. Having peers in the same clubs helps students learn to use their taken language and bring it into the outside world where they can learn to speak more fluently.

Now that the walls of isolation between cultures and people come tumbling down they may each greet you with a bon jour, hola, guten tag, salve, (Russian) or hello.

Ice Hockey

He's at the point, shoots...scores!!

In the past years, ice hockey has become just as popular as the All-American pastimes: basketball, football, and baseball. With increasing interest in the sport among the youth in Virginia Beach, there is an ever growing demand for schools to offer hockey as part of their sports program. However, there is one major problem...no skating rink. To put an ice rink in every high school would be financially impractical. As a result, teenagers are forced to look to community assets.

Four seniors attending Kellam have taken an interest in hockey, which has lead them to Iceland, a local Virginia Beach skating rink. Alex Carr, Brandon Ashley, and Pete Reitmeyer play for the Hampton Roads Youth Hockey Junior Admirals Midget Team (sixteen and seventeen year olds). Kevin Smith is on the Hurricanes, in Iceland's Adult League. The Junior Admirals are in the Capital Beltway League, which gives them a chance to play teams from Maryland, Delaware, Washington D.C. as well as here in Virginia. They play a game schedule while traveling to rinks of opposing teams or skating on home ice at Iceland.

Pete has been involved with the sport for six years while Kevin, Alex and Brandon have only been involved since this past summer. Ed Kaczkowski, an official referee at Iceland, attended Kellam last year as a junior. When asked if his team is, in truth, a community one, Pete Reitmeyer proudly explained, "We are in USA Hockey." The same organization as the Olympics.

The four young men play out of a true love for the game of hockey. They brave ice cold locker rooms, late nights, early mornings and frozen feet because they would rather play hockey than do anything else.

"Life is Hockey!"

To Drive or

Not to Drive!

When you are a freshman and a sophomore you can not wait for that day that you can drive to school. When you are a junior and a senior driving to school is a privilege, but it can also be a terrible time.

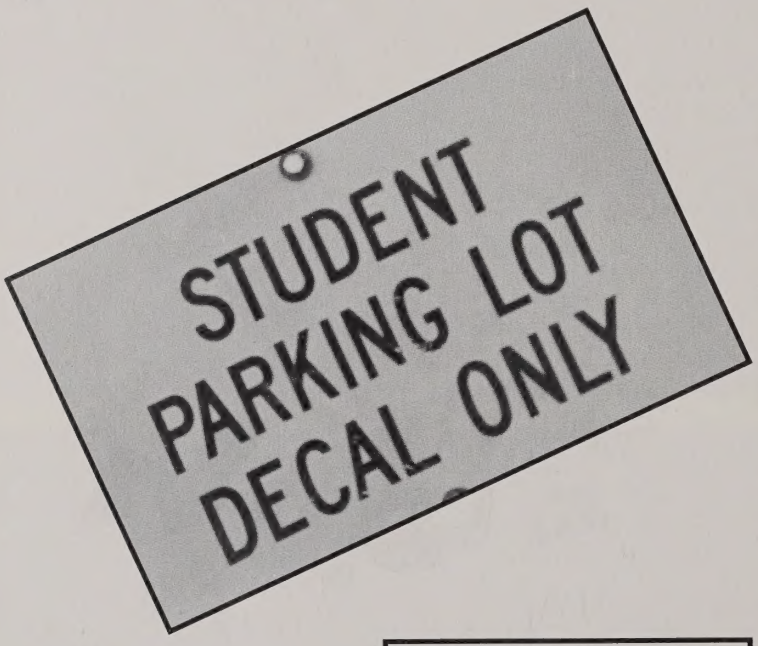
In order to be able to drive to school you must first get a parking permit. After having a few of your teachers to sign it, if there are any left, you are given a permit to put in your window. This is where the problems first begin.

First you have to be able to get into the parking lot. The traffic can be backed up for at least a mile! After you get into the lot, then you must find a space to park your car.

As you start towards the school building, you think that the worst is over for your driving adventure. Then the end of the day arrives, when you go out to your car, you notice a big dent in the side of your car!

Accidents in school parking lots are quite common. Sometimes with these major problems it is a lot easier to ride the "Cheese," to and from school ... Naa.

Some students like David Hildman, ride motorcycles as an economical way of getting to school.



A common sign in all school parking lots.

Amanti,
Hey! Well I guess I'll see ya next year same English class, same room. Well have a great summer & good luck with Tennis.

Most Likely To Succeed...

This year it was decided that every student in the Senior Class would be a most likely to succeed candidate. For the reason that Kellam's class of '91 is full of creative, intellectual, and talented young men and women, therefore, it would be a very difficult task to choose a single student as the most likely to succeed. Each and every one of these Seniors have climbed their way up the ladder of higher education starting at

- Well another year has come to an end, and unfortunately we still haven't had a chance to get to know each other better. Maybe we can change all that next year if we have some classes together. If we don't, please just have a cool summer and don't be too shy to say "hi" to me, k?

elementary school. Then to junior high and at last many have reached their final year of high school. The graduating class this year has already succeeded in one major portion of their lives. Success should be defined as when a person feels that they have reached their goals to their fullest capability.

It Takes a Long Time To Build a Book

As we come to the close of our 29th yearbook it is time to dedicate two pages to the people who put this memory book together, the Challenger Staff. Believe us this was no easy task!

Putting a yearbook together requires a lot of hard work and dedication. Many longs days, nights and even a few Saturdays were spent developing and printing film, croping pictures, designing layouts, writing stories and captions and typing every word into the computer. The Yearbook Staff worked tirelessly to put this year's 1990—91 editon together.

Under the supervision and guidance of a new sponsor, Ms. Laura Cameron, this year's staff experienced a variety of challenges and obstacles in completing the Challenger for publication. Junior copywriter Shawna Freeman said "A lot of pain, sweat and tears went into creating the perfect yearbook. But despite the hard work, we still managed to have a lot of fun."

The Yearbook Staff did enjoy working on putting together this book of memories. Perhaps being a member of Kellam's Yearbook Staff can be summed up best by staff member Jenny Tuttle, "It's tough, for you have to be dedicated, but it all pays off in the end when you see the students excitement upon receiving their books and, I can say, hey I helped make that!"

Ms. Cameron and Heather Sealey design a layout for the closing pages.

Another Year

In the Memory

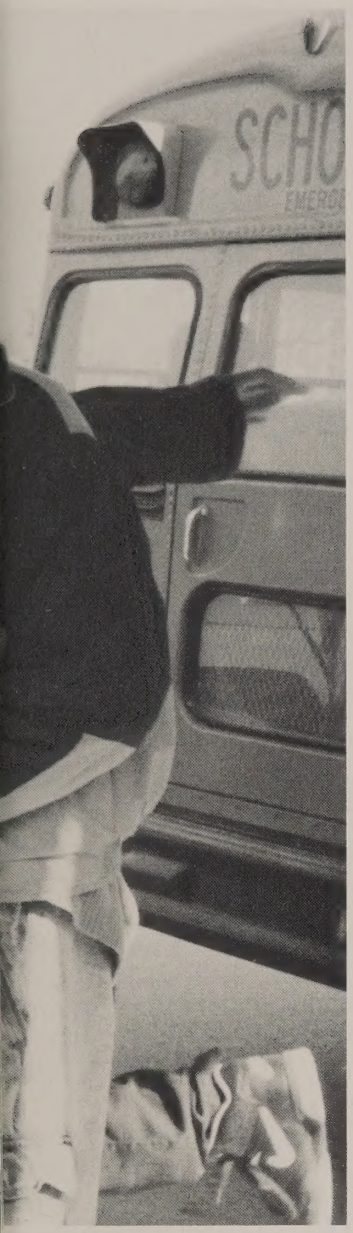
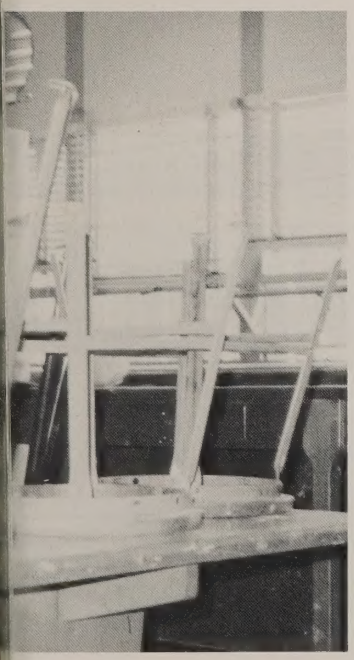
Now we've finally come to the end of a year and a decade of changes. We have covered all the main events and important people of the 1990—91 school year. From the Inside Out!

This year has proven to be the best with the help of our newly renovated school and principals who have seemed to raise our spirits high. We have a whole new perspective of our school that we have learned to take pride in. Maybe this is a start to becoming a school with more spirit. Maybe Kellam is finally on the road to new and better things.

This year has given us more goals toward a better school and we have worked hard to achieve them. The success of 1990—91 has proven that we have established something not only for ourselves, but for our school, as well. That is what is most important during your high school years. The fact that you have accomplished something for your school shows that you care . The goals that you achieve will be recognized not just now, but or as long as you and your friends are alive.



Jermaine Owens out maneuvers one of the Kempsville Chiefs and heads up court.



Stools upside down on the art tables are a sign of the end of the day.

Students stroll to their buses after a long day at school.

"What have you liked most about Kellam this year?"

"There was more school spirit at all the sporting events this year."
Edmund Tan.

"I liked that all the sport teams improved a great deal since last year."
Reggie Tims

"People were more interested in what was going on."
Kelly Mazzocco

"There were a lot of activities that everyone and anyone could get involved in."
Amanda Huffman

" It has been better for all the students."
Jerry Callis

"I'm glad that they finally fixed this place up. It looks much better!"
Stephanie Cummings

"The overall moral I think has improved. Most of the students want to be involved in activities. Mr. Williams is the best. He talks to the students and he is always around the school."
Kelli Reddick

"The school spirit was much better this year and the school sports did better as a result."

'Da Beach

a place to be

A walk along the beach is certainly worth getting up for.

The majority of Kellam students find time for 'da beach. Whether one goes for a romantic atmosphere or to catch some rays, 'da beach is a very popular place.

Da beach attracts people of all ages. Many people go to 'da beach to surf. These are the people that stay on the shore just long enough to take off their shirt and wax their board. They often spend four or five hours in the water.

As we know, 'da beach does not only attract locals but also people from all parts of the country. It is a major tourist attraction in the summer. 'Da beach is packed full of people, some trying to capture the moment with their cameras. 'Da beach is what makes summertime so fun.

Amante- Hey, whats going on? This year has gone by so fast. Just to think we only have 1 more year, can't wait! I've known you for about 2 years now, and you're a really great guy and hopefully I see you next year, so I can get you some more pens/ pencils Hope to see you over the summer!!

Brothers
and Sisters

Most of them consider each other a friend for life. Anybody who has a brother or sister knows that there are always advantages and disadvantages to having a sibling. Whether it's a dispute over who has to clean the dishes or a simple thanks for helping to clean the car, brothers and sisters will always have something to say to each other.

From the minute the proud big brother's little sister is born he realizes that he has the duty to show this little lady around, but wait a minute, who says they have to share everything. Yes, that is the way it goes for most siblings. All throughout life siblings strive to help each other through life's most trying problems.

Ray Whitehurst VanNostrand
January 5, 1991

A Dedication To You

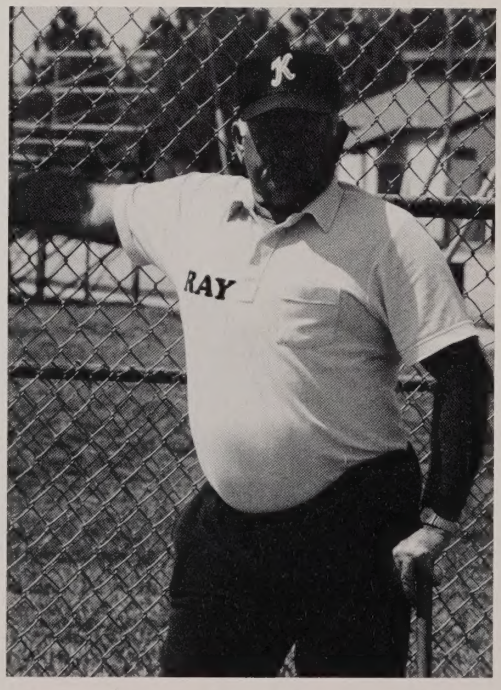
Ray Whitehurst VanNostrand was a man dedicated to Kellam High School. He was always there for the students and he is a man who will be missed.

The former baseball coach of 1978, Wayne Sykes, now an assistant principal at Salem High, recalls seeing Ray leaning against a fence watching the Knights pre-season practice one spring afternoon. "I thought he was someone from another school spying on us," said Sykes, "so I went over to talk to him to see what he was doing. It took only a few minutes to figure out that he was there watching out of a love for the game"

Ray stayed around and showed his dedication by helping with anything needed. He was most involved with school sports and was always there with a reassuring smile and a kind word. His advice and pep-talks were always welcomed by the students.



At his wake a Kellam baseball hat was placed in his casket along with an autographed baseball. A Kellam letter with all the sports pins was placed in his hand.

VanNostrand was commited to his voulunteer work and bought about $15,000 worth of equipment over the years. He also video taped all our games. If there was an exchange student, Ray would get their visit on video and when they would leave at years end the student would have a video yearbook to take home with them. "There isn't a kid or faculty member who went through here who wasn't made a better person by him in some way." said Student Activities Coordinator Roy Ammons. "At times like this, people always say good things about the person who has died, the difference with Ray is that you can believe everything everybody says. He was one of those rare people who comes along."

Amante,
Been cool year buddy, every time I remember, I think of Mr. Reid's class, it was cool in Accounting → even though I got Dogged. Well this is more year for Graduation, I can't wait, But I'll see ya next year, maybe I'll run up with you in California, Call sometime- 421-2630 620-1919

It's been an interesting year in History with Mr. Lambrette. I've never written so many reports and papers in my whole life!! I really had a great year in the U.S.A. and I will never forget it. Next year, when I'll have to take Spanish I'll think of our class. It's not gonna be the same! I'll miss you all. I hope you have a great Senior year and whatever you do in the future, Whatever you do. Say much, but when you do it's worth hearing. Keep playing tennis. Keep in touch w/your F.A.
